

DOWNTOWN APEX

Downtown Apex stands as the hallmark of our town, steeped in history as one of the most well-preserved turn-of-the-century railroad towns in the region. Officially designated as a Historic District in 1994, its charming streets are lined with commercial and residential buildings dating back to the late 1800s, showcasing a delightful variety of architectural styles. Many of these buildings hold a place in the National Register of Historic Places.

Shop, Dine & Play

Experience downtown Apex, where shop, dine and play intertwine to create an unforgettable experience. Immerse yourself in the welcoming atmosphere as you wander through boutique-lined streets, where each storefront holds unique treasures waiting to be found. Indulge your palate with delectable dining options, from cozy cafés to upscale eateries, offering culinary delights to satisfy every craving. Quench your thirst at taprooms and breweries, where locally crafted beers and artisanal brews await.

Sculpture Walk

The Apex Sculpture Walk is a vibrant celebration of creativity, inviting the community to engage in a meaningful artistic experience as they stroll along the charming streets. Showcasing a variety of outstanding artists, this outdoor exhibit features captivating sculptures thoughtfully displayed throughout Downtown Apex, connecting to nearby Town Hall Campus and Hunter Street Park, while bringing new focus to the already lively downtown scene. Download the Ottocast app in order to listen to artists narrate the story behind each piece & follow along for the full audio tour experience! Sculpture Walk maps are available at the Depot!

The Historic Depot

The Apex Historic Depot is an important landmark that preserves the town's rich history as a former train station. This restored building now serves as the Town's Welcome Center and also houses the Town of Apex Economic Development Department, as well as the Apex Chamber of Commerce. The Depot reveals an insight into Apex's past through literature, building architecture, and its' historic caboose.

The Halle

Just across the street from the Historic Depot, the Halle Cultural Arts Center serves as an active hub of creativity in Apex, offering a diverse range of arts programming for all ages. The Halle also has an intimate 150-seat theater, complemented by two galleries showcasing a variety of artwork. With a rich assortment of programs designed for both adults and children, the Halle fosters a community-centered environment filled with enriching experiences.
